RESEARCH CANVAS

Name: _____

Date: _____

Define the context of your research

Give some background in the field or technology you are working in.If applicable, describe the larger (regional or European) project your research is part of.

Which types of IPRs are involved and who owns them?

If applicable, state the Intellectual Property Rights (patents, software codes, databases, etc) involved in your research, as well as its respective owner (your University, research organization, company, public domain, etc).

Which research problem do you aim to solve?

Describe the academical, technological or societal problem or challenge you are trying to solve with your research.

What are the functionalities of your solution?

Illustrate the technological solution you are working on which aims to solve the previously stated problem.

How does your solution position itself with respect to other solutions?

Describe existing alternative solutions (not necessary technological) to solve the stated problem.

Who are you?

Briefly state your professional experiences and credentials.